

I, as a consumer, do not wish to have companies call me to offer their services or products. If I am interested in a product, I will do my own research to purchase that product or obtain someones service. There is no reason that business need to harass me when I am at home enjoying the peace and quiet. DO NOT allow our Wisconsin laws regarding telemarketers to be changed. I like them just the way they are.